

Film 2000 – Film Appreciation

Course Description: A course to extend the knowledge and critical appreciation of film as an informed audience member and to amplify and intensify critical skills with regard to analyzing and evaluating films. Students will become familiar with a cross section of modern critical approaches as well as individual and personal evaluations of films.